

Salary and Employment Trends

H2 2024

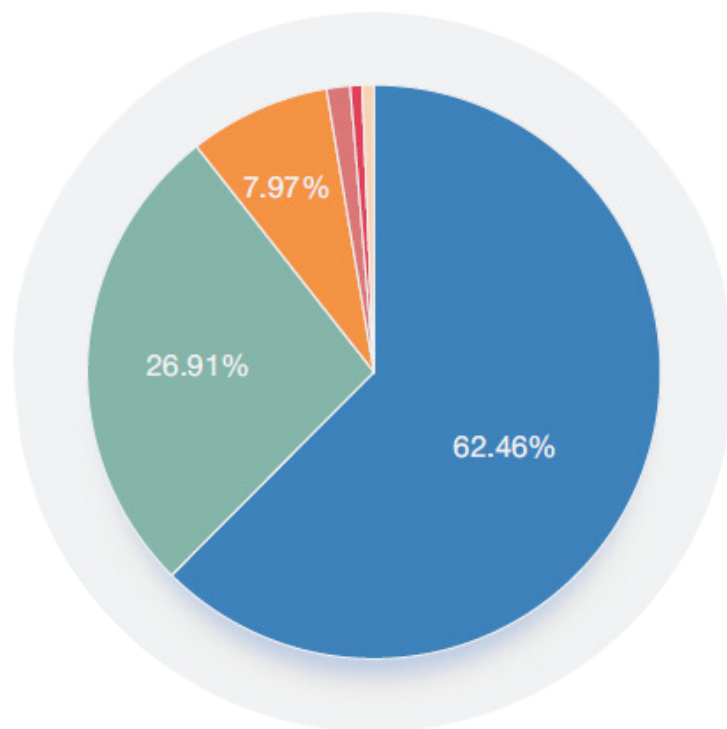

SATR CROATIA vs. SLOVENIA

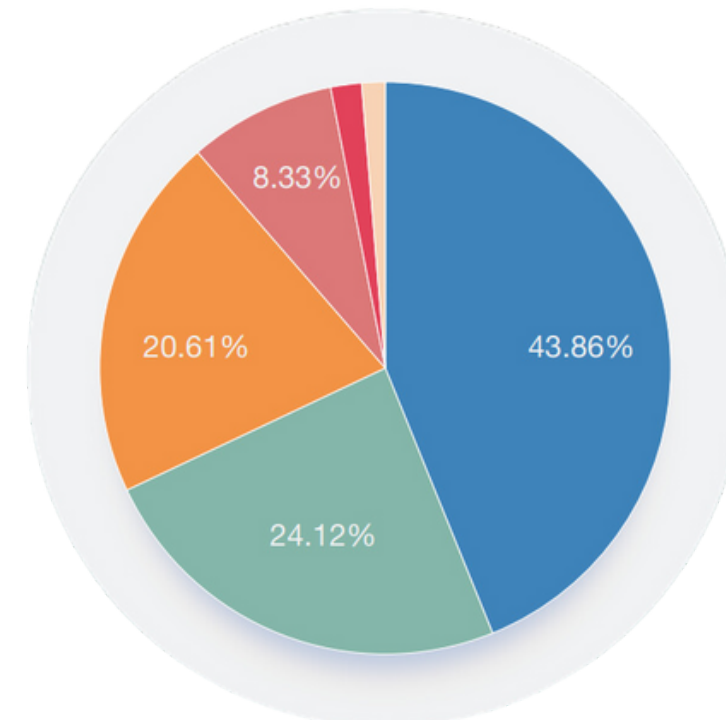

Will employers raise monthly salaries in H2 2024?

 36.21% of employers plan to increase salaries, while 62.46% of employers don't.

 56.13% of employers plan to increase salaries, while 43.86% of employers don't.

- We don't plan to change salaries
- We plan to increase salaries by up to 5 %
- We plan to increase salaries 6% - 10%
- We plan to increase salaries 11% - 20%
- We are planning to cut salaries
- We plan to increase salaries by more than 20%

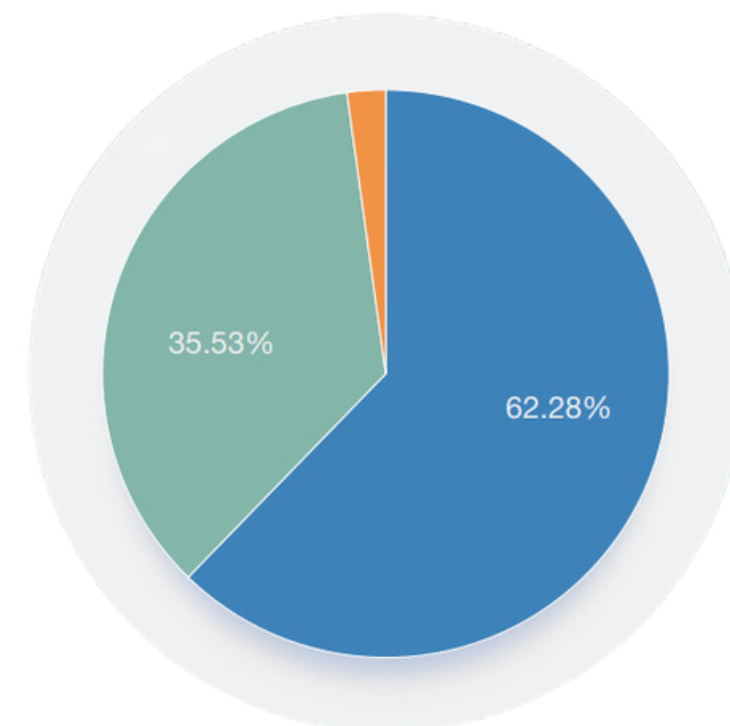

What plans do employers have for additional benefits in 2024?

 80.4% of employees don't plan major changes in additional benefits.

 62.28% of employees don't plan major changes in additional benefits.

-  There will be no major changes
-  We will increase/introduce additional benefits or bonuses
-  We will reduce/remove additional benefits or bonuses.

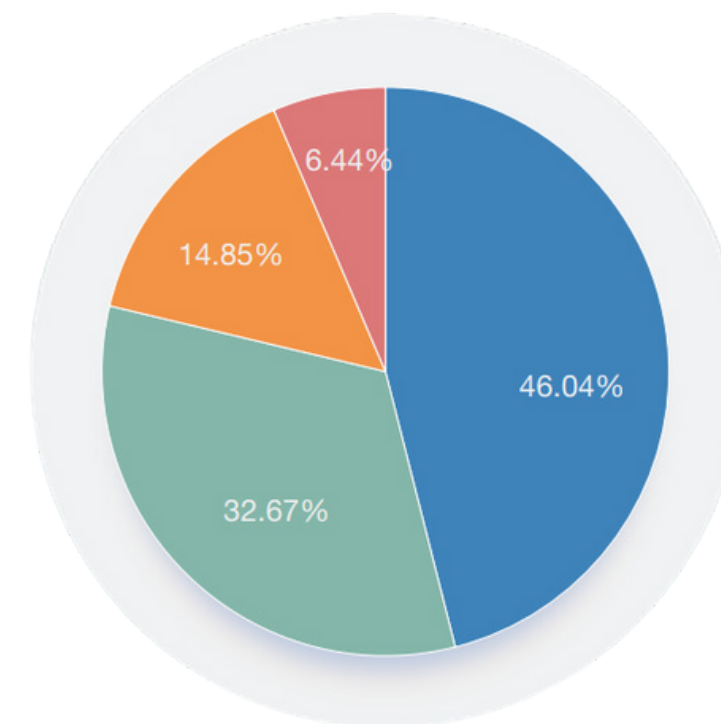

What are the employers hiring intentions for H2 2024?

 53.95% of employers plan to hire more than lay off.

 46.04% of employers plan to hire more than lay off.

-  We will hire more than lay off
-  There will be no changes
-  We will lay off more than hire
-  We have not decided about our employment intentions

Which departments faced the biggest hiring challenges for employers in 2023?

1. Manufacturing (38.46%)

2. Sales & Procurement (23.08%)

3. IT (19.23%)

1. Manufacturing (30.69%)

2. Sales & Procurement (26.73%)

3. Logistics & Warehouse (20.79%)

Average salaries Croatia vs. Slovenia

Average gross salaries were highest in finance & insurance (4.015 EUR), and lowest in hospitality (1.675 EUR).

Average gross salary is 2.332 EUR.

Source: SURS

Average gross salaries were highest in computer programming & activities related (3.005 EUR), and lowest in clothing manufacturing (1.085 EUR).

Average gross salary is 1.834 EUR.

Source: DZS

Firmographics data

Contact us

Nik Fortič

Business Development
Manager and Team Lead
at Manpower Slovenia

✉ sales@manpower.si
☎ +386 40 561 335
🌐 www.manpower.si

Tomislav Radoš

Business Development
Department Team Lead
at Manpower Croatia

✉ sales@manpower.hr
☎ +385 91 430 4301
🌐 www.manpower.hr